no more than a dozen dozen

We believe that you should taste everything that life has to offer and our approach to this wine list is no exception. We only ever hold a very limited quantity of any one wine, sometimes just a few and never more than 144. This means an ever changing and ever evolving list of exceptional wine. Some very rare and all very good.

One of the great things about this approach is that we are often approached by vintners and wineries with small quantities of exceptional wine. Follow @oaken.nz to be regularly notified of these special wines.
